

Randomized algorithms on the approximation of rank one tensors

Daniel Rudolf, Friedrich-Schiller-Universität

We study the approximation of high-dimensional rank one tensors. We prove that for certain parameters (smoothness and norm of the r th derivative) this problem is intractable while for other parameters the problem is tractable and the complexity is only polynomial in the dimension.