Critical points of logarithmic energy and quadratic differentials
Wai Yeung Lam, Brown University

We introduce a notion of holomorphic quadratic differentials on graphs and illustrate their relation to logarithmic energy on the sphere and the plane. We will briefly discuss the connection of quadratic differentials to circle packings (with non-constant radii) and minimal surfaces.