Birational geometry of moduli spaces of rational curves

Ana-Maria Castravet, Northeastern University

I will discuss what is known about effective cycles on the moduli spaces of stable rational curves with n markings and continue with the proof that these spaces are not Mori Dream Spaces for n large, by reducing the question to a study of blow-ups of weighted projective planes.