

Tim Browning: Counting failures of weak approximation

Given a family of varieties over a number field, we give conditions under which a positive proportion of the varieties in the family are everywhere locally soluble, together with conditions which guarantee that there is a Brauer-Manin obstruction to weak approximation on 100% of these fibres. This is joint work with Martin Bright and Dan Loughran.