

Lucia Caporaso: Degenerations of line bundles on algebraic curves:
new methods and results

It has been well known for a long time that degenerations of line bundles when smooth curves specialize to singular ones can be very hard to describe. The talk will describe new methods and results inspired by tropical geometry, and describe a selection of open problems.