The characters of the symmetric group
Rosa Orellana, Dartmouth College

The characters of the symmetric group can be computed from matrix representations using the trace function. In this talk I will show that there are symmetric polynomials such that when we evaluate them at the eigenvalues of permutation matrices they evaluate to these characters.

This is joint work with M. Zabrocki