

Link homology as a tale of two quivers

Lev Rozansky, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

This is a joint work with A. Oblomkov. I will show how our construction of link homology is related to the interaction of two Nakajima quiver varieties. Within this picture, affine quivers provide 2-categories and the edges of the linear quiver provide functors between them.