

Fuchsian actions on complex projective spaces

Jose Seade, National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)

This talk is about joint work with John Parker and Angel Cano studying the geometry and topology Fuchsian groups acting on the complex projective space CP^2 . We use the Hermitian cross product introduced by Bill Goldman, to determine the limit set of the action.