

Using dynamics to construct surface groups

Ursula Hamenstaedt, Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn

We will present a version of the construction of Kahn and Markovich which can be used to construct surface subgroups of cocompact lattices in simple rank one Lie groups of non-compact type. We will explain why this construction can not be used to construct convex cocompact surface subgroups of the mapping class group.