

Effective computations of Hasse--Weil zeta functions

Edgar Costa, ICERM/Dartmouth University

We start by studying the behavior of geometric Picard rank a K3 surfaces over \mathbb{Q} under reduction modulo primes.

We compute these ranks for reductions of representative examples, investigate the resulting statistics, and their consequences.