

From K3 surfaces to noncongruence modular forms

Wenching Li, Pennsylvania State University

In this talk we shall recount the story how the modularity of K3 surfaces led to the modularity of certain low degree Scholl representations attached to noncongruence modular forms. The recent joint work with Ling Long and Tong Liu on examples of potential modularity of Scholl representations of high degrees will also be discussed.