

Counting embeddings of Laman graphs

Josef Schicho, JKU Linz

For a fixed rigid graph, plane Euclidean embeddings can be considered as solutions of a system of algebraic equations with parameters (the lengths of the edges). The number of complex solutions does not depend on the parameters, as long as they are chosen generically. We present a combinatorial algorithm for computing this number.