

Spaces of non-k-equal configurations in a Euclidean space and the little discs operad
Victor Turchin, Kansas State University

The homology of the aforementioned configuration spaces were first computed by A. Björner and M. Wachs a bit more than 20 years ago. I will explain how the operadic viewpoint can help to describe those homology groups more geometrically.