

Random triangulations of the two sphere

Eric Babson, UC Davis

We study the local geometry of random triangulations of the two sphere by constructing a foliated configuration space with a measure and a metric so that the metric balls in its leaves are those in the triangulations with the measure recording their frequency. This construction distinguishes a class of differential operators for which we study a density of states.

This is a joint work with Nathan Hannon and Jerome Kaminker.