

BKK bound and polyhedral homotopy

Tianran Chen - Auburn University at Montgomery

BKK bound and polyhedral homotopy are two important tools for counting and finding all solutions to systems of polynomial equations. This talk provides a brief overview of the theory and algorithms behind these two ideas from the viewpoint of tropical intersection theory. We will also explore the challenges in applying these tools to new problems.