

The functional expansion approach to solving the Teukolsky equation.

Adrian Ottewill, University College Dublin

I will describe the MST functional expansion approach to analytic approximation and numerical solutions to the Teukolsky equation.

In particular I will discuss the physical significance of the 'renormalised angular momentum' and efficient ways to calculate it perturbatively in the low frequency regime and numerically at all frequencies.