

Extracting information from unmodeled or poorly modeled gravitational wave signals

Katerina Chatziioannou, Caltech

Many signals expected to be observed in ground based gravitational wave detectors will be unmodeled or poorly modeled. In this talk I will describe how information can still be extracted about the properties of the signal source with BayesWave.