The goal of this talk will be to explain the statement of Soergel's conjecture and why this conjecture implies the positivity of Kazhdan-Lusztig polynomials (for arbitrary Coxeter systems). Soergel's conjecture was proven recently by Ben Elias and Geordie Williamson, and we'll try to explain at least some of the ideas in their proof.