

Guaranteed Tensor Decomposition through Alternating Rank-1 Updates

Anima Anandkumar, University of California, Irvine

The problem of CP tensor decomposition through simple alternating rank-1 updates is considered. Local convergence guarantees are derived when the tensor components are incoherent. We show that an SVD initialization procedure leads to global convergence guarantees in certain regimes.