New developments in smooth rigidity of lattice actions.

Federico Rodriguez Hertz, PSU

In joint work with A. Brown and Z. Wang we were able to show some new rigidity results for higher rank lattice actions that in one way or other display some hyperbolicity. The main technical tool is the notion of resonance that will be discussed in the talk. In particular we prove global rigidity results for Anosov actions on nilmanifolds and also for actions on low dimensions.