

Sets with few distances and their optimality

Alexey Glazyrin, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

The talk is devoted to sets with few distances in spherical and projective spaces. In the first part, I will talk about sets with few distances on spheres and explain how to develop new upper bounds on their sizes. The second part will be about new lower bounds for energy of projective codes that appear to be sharp for several infinite families of sets with few distances.