

Semidefinite programming I

Christine Bachoc, Université de Bordeaux

In this talk we will start with the basics about semidefinite programs, then we will introduce Lovasz theta number for graphs, and see how the symmetries of the graph can be exploited in order to simplify it. After that we will see how to generalize these ideas to compact spaces in view of solving packing problems.