Cluster structures in commutative rings
Lauren Williams, Harvard University

In my first talk, I will give a gentle introduction to cluster algebras. In the second talk, I will describe how to identify a commutative ring (such as the coordinate ring of an algebraic variety) with a cluster algebra, and provide several examples. I will also discuss how to describe cluster algebras by generators and relations.