Presenting the multipolynomial bases package
Viviane Pons, Université Paris-Saclay

In this talk, we present an external SageMath package to work on multivariate polynomials seen as an algebra over integer vectors (the exponents). This allows for manipulation of divided differences operators and the definition of many bases of multivariate polynomials such as the Schubert polynomials, Grothendieck, and Demazure Characters.