

Cluster Algebras of Surfaces II: Towards Bases

Gregg Musiker, University of Minnesota

In previous work with Ralf Schiffler and Lauren Williams, we have provided combinatorial formulas, involving snake graphs, for Laurent expansions for cluster variables coming from a bordered surface. In this talk, I will discuss extensions of this work towards constructing vector space bases for such algebras. This is work in progress with Schiffler and Williams.