

Dimers and clusters

Rick Kenyon, Brown University

This is joint work with A. Goncharov. To any convex integer polygon we associate a cluster variety, which is essentially the moduli space of connections on line bundles on bipartite graphs on a torus. There is an underlying integrable Hamiltonian system whose Hamiltonians are sums of dimer covers.