

Integrability of pentagram maps and Lax representations.

Fedor Soloviev, University of Toronto

We discuss integrability of higher dimensional pentagram maps. These maps provide an explicit example when a discrete map "jumps" between different invariant tori leading to a generalized version of Arnold-Liouville theorem. This is a joint work with Boris Khesin.