

Congruences and relations for the Fishburn numbers

Frank Garvan, University of Florida

The Fishburn numbers occur as coefficients of Konsevich's strange quantum modular form. We show how we used the computer to discover and prove new congruences and relations for the Fishburn numbers and their relatives.