

Annihilators of powers of arrangements.

Uli Walther, Purdue University

We consider the differential operators that annihilate  $f^s$  where  $s$  is a new unknown and  $f$  the defining equation of an arrangement. An interesting question is: when is this  $D$ -ideal generated by derivations? The issue is related to tameness and may be equivalent. We discuss the connection, and some possible applications.