Annihilators of powers of arrangements.
Uli Walther, Purdue University

We consider the differential operators that annihilate $f^s$ where $s$ is a new unknown and $f$ the defining equation of an arrangement. An interesting question is: when is this $D$-ideal generated by derivations? The issue is related to tameness and may be equivalent. We discuss the connection, and some possible applications.