

Characteristic classes and arrangements I

Paolo Aluffi, Florida State University

We will discuss several notions of “characteristic class” in algebraic geometry, then show that information such as the characteristic polynomial of a hyperplane arrangement can be read off a suitable characteristic class of its complement. We will also discuss how this information may be encoded in the Segre class of the singularity subscheme of an arrangement.