

Planar graphs with convex faces

Rick Kenyon, Brown University

The space of embeddings of a planar graph (with convex faces and pinned outer boundary) is topologically a ball; we give some global coordinates on this space and discuss a number of interesting subspaces, including harmonic embeddings and various "tilings."