

Cyclic covers of genus two curves and varieties linear in period coordinates

Ronen Mukamel, Rice University

We will present several new examples of varieties in the moduli space of abelian differentials which are locally defined by real linear equations in period coordinates. Our examples arise from the study of cyclic covers of genus two curves.

This is joint work with A. Eskin, C. McMullen and A. Wright.