On the Hughes Model for crowd motion
Jan-Frederik Pietschmann, WWU Münster

We will introduce the Hughes model for pedestrian dynamics which consists of a system of two coupled partial differential equations. Due to the low regularity of solutions, a general existence theory is difficult to achieve and we will present some results in this direction. These results will be supplemented by numerical simulations.