Generating quasi-uniform node sets via energy minimization

Doug Hardin, Vanderbilt University

I will present recent theoretical and computational results concerning the generation of large node sets via energy minimization.