

Robust forward performance criteria

Thaleia Zariphopoulou, UT-Austin

In this talk, I will present a family of robust performance criteria in optimal portfolio choice which evolve forward in time. Such criteria allow for dynamic revision of both the model dynamics and the risk preferences. I will focus on the class of predictable processes and discuss, among others, the robustness of risk preferences for the case of completely monotonic inverse marginal utilities.