

The quantum Heisenberg category and centers of Hecke algebras

Jonathan Brundan, University of Oregon

I will define a monoidal category which is a q -deformed version of Khovanov's Heisenberg category, generalizing a deformation introduced by Licata and Savage. In order to establish a basis theorem for the morphism spaces in this category, one runs into some combinatorial questions about centers of finite type A Hecke algebras.