Frames generated from exponential of operators.

Akram Aldroubi, Vanderbilt University

In this talk, I will give a brief review on how to generate frames from operator powers of exponentials acting on a set of vectors. I will discuss some of the previous results and present several new ones.