Some open problems about tilings and spectra
Mihalis Kolountzakis, University of Crete

We will discuss some open problems related to when a domain (in Euclidean space or other group) tiles space by translations and also about spectrality of domains (when do they possess an orthogonal basis consisting of exponentials).