Fractional calculus via transcendental functions of the Mittag-Leffler and Wright type

Francesco Mainardi, Department of Physics and Astronomy, University of Bologna, Italy

We point out the main properties and the key role of the functions of the Mittag-Leffler and Wright type in the most common problems of fractional calculus.