

Large Time Steps for Compressible Flow based on Runge-Kutta Schemes

Eli Turkel, Tel Aviv University

We describe a preconditioner based on a first order upwind scheme. This is integrated in time using an implicit Runge-Kutta method which allows large time steps. For multi-scaled problems this achieves a much greater efficiency than an explicit time scheme