

The interplay between circle packings and subdivision rules

Floyd, William- Virginia Tech

There have been rich interactions between the Cannon-Floyd-Parry work on finite subdivision rules and work of Bowers and Stephenson on circle packings and conformal tilings. I'll start in the middle with a simple example, backtrack to how it came up for us in our work on Cannon's conjecture, and then trace it forward to expansion complexes.