

Some branching formulas for Kac-Moody Lie algebras

Kyu-Hwan Lee, University of Connecticut

In this talk I will explain how to use crystals to compute some branching rules for the fundamental representations of Kac-Moody Lie algebras associated to T-shaped graphs. These formulas are useful to describe generators of the generic rings for free resolutions of length three.

This is a joint work with Jerzy Weyman.