

Critically diffusive active scalar equations and the second iterate

Walter Rusin, Oklahoma State University

In this talk we will consider iterative resolution schemes for critically diffusive active scalar equations and focus on the second iterate. The main objective of the talk will be the analysis of the resulting bilinear form and implications it bears on the well-posedness of the problem. In particular, we will discuss the case of active scalar equations with singular transport.